

Young Women in Construction Conference at the Skills Canada National Competition Edmonton EXPO Centre Edmonton, AB

Monday, June 4, 2018
1:00pm - 3:00pm
Room 301/302 (EXPO Gallery)

Co-hosted by UA Canada and Skills/Compétences Canada

The goal of this event is to showcase what it's like to be a woman working in the construction industry, and to provide mentorship and advice for young women seeking a career in the building trades.

There will be a special presentation from HGTV's Kate Campbell and Paul LaFrance, followed by a guided tour at UA Canada's Try-A-Trade® and Technology booth, where participants can try several activities related to the piping industry.

Agenda

1:00 - 1:15: UA Canada Welcome
1:15 - 1:25: Opening Presentation
1:25 - 1:45: Mentorship Panel
1:45 - 2:15: Kate Campbell and Paul LaFrance
2:15 - 2:30: Question and Answer
2:30 - 3:00: UA Canada Try-A-Trade® and Technology activities

Capacity: 75 young women

To register, please contact: alanna.marklund@uacanada.ca or by telephone at (780)-819-6852